BALLINGER'S RETIREMENT

Would be Regarded by Party Leaders as Beneficial

WHAT MR. TAFT THINKS

Has Not Been Stated But It Is Positively Asserted That Secretary's Resignation Will Never Be Asked For

Beverly, Aug. 2.—There was increasing evidence here today that the recent bombardment of the president with letters from republican leaders in all parts of the country protesting that Secretary Ballinger is providing embarrassment in laying plans for the coming congressional campaign, are beginning to have effect, if not upon the president himself, at least upon the advisers closest to him.

No attempt was made today to deny the reports that Secretary Crane at the very outset of his political pilgrimage through the west would probably suggest to Mr. Ballinger at Minneapolis yesterday that his duty to his party might require that he sacrifice his place in the cabinet.

All that Secretary Norton would say after having considered the matter carefully all day was that it would be necessary to see Mr. Crane. The statement was reiterated that the president would not so much as lift a finger if by so doing he could secure the retirement of Mr. Ballinger as the head of the interior department.

Party leaders who have talked with the president, it is said, while agreeing that nothing has been proved against Mr. Ballinger, they have put the matter purely on a party basis, and said that the campaign would be easier with Mr. Ballinger eliminated as an issue. The leaders have declared that the fight is going to be a hard one at best, and while they feel sorry for Mr. Ballinger, they regard his presence in the cabinet as a handicap.

Mr. Taft was frankly told a few days ago that the movement behind Garfield in Ohio was a protest against Mr. Ballinger. The Ohio leaders recognized its strength and made concessions in the platform.

There was a disposition at Beverly today to treat the meeting of Messrs. Crane and Ballinger at Minneapolis as "accidental." It was clearly intimated that any move against Mr. Ballinger had its inception among active party leaders and not with Mr. Taft.

The president, it can be stated positively, will never ask Mr. Ballinger to resign. If the secretary should feel called upon to resign, there is little doubt that his resignation would be accepted.

TWO NEW RECORDS MADE AT DETROIT

Harvester, Five Years Old, Trotted Two Fastest Miles.

Detroit, Aug. 2.—Two new speed records marked the second day of the Grand Circuit racing at the State Fair grounds. Driving for the first since his injury at Grand Rapids two weeks ago, E. F. Geers, the veteran driver, celebrated his return to the sulky by sending Harvester the two fastest miles ever trotted by a stallion, each mile being negotiated in 2:04 1/2. This time is also the best ever made by a five-year-old.

Geers also drove The Abbe to victory in the Chamber of Commerce $5,000 stake, winning three straight heats, after being beaten at the wire in the first heat by Evelyn W. In the 2:07 trot, which developed the new champion, The Harvester won two heats practically as he pleased. At no time was he extended. In the 2:24 pace, $1,000, Clover Patch won, Jerry Direct second, Nellie Temple third. Time, 2:09 1/2. In the Chamber of Commerce stake, $5,000, The Abbe won, Evelyn W. second, Bran Brambraughman third. Best time, 2:04 1/2.

In the 2:07 trot, The Harvester won, Bob Douglas second, Spanish Queen third. Best time, 2:04 1/2. The Horseman and Spirit of the Times Futurity 2-year-olds trot, $2,000, was won by Neola; Azoff second and Miss Stokes third. Best time, 2:13 1/2.

KILLED IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT. The District Attorney of Grass Valley, California.

Grass Valley, Cal., Aug. 2.—District Attorney Thomas Ford was killed in an auto accident this evening. A. J. Donnell of San Francisco, another occupant of the car, was perhaps fatally injured. Samuel Coit, a mining engineer, was driving the car, and Robert Smith, a chauffeur, was temporarily acting as Coit's instructor in his first lesson in driving. They escaped with minor injuries. Ford was entertaining Coit and Donnell in his new machine, which arrived from San Francisco on Sunday. On the return trip to Grass Valley Coit asked to be allowed to run the car. The machine was coasting on the brink of an embankment, when Coit turned to the right to permit the passage of a horse and buggy. When the rig passed, Coit, instead of turning to the left, pressed the wheel to the right. In an instant the machine had plunged over the bank. The fall was thirty feet, and Ford was pinioned beneath the machine.

TO RECOVER COAL LANDS. Alleged to Have Been Fraudulently Acquired in Colorado.

Denver, Aug. 2.—Charging that a number of persons had fraudulently obtained valuable coal lands in Colorado, suit was begun today in the federal court here by Attorney General Wickensham and Assistant United States Attorneys Hartwell and Ward. The charge is made that they obtained nearly 4,000 acres of rich coal land in Routt county, now valued at $700,000, for a comparatively small sum.

Among the defendants are the Carbon Fuel and Iron company, the Continental Trust company, the Tonahop Coal & Land company, E. E. Shanway, F. T. Henry, D. W. Brown, Henry L. Doherty, F. W. Fruehcraft and the Bankers' Trust company of New York.

NEW LABOR UNION MAY BE ORGANIZED

AN INTIMATION GIVEN BY PRESIDENT MOYER.

In Case the American Federation Does Not Yield.

Denver, Aug. 2.—An intimation of the forming of a new labor union of national scope, comprising the Western Federation of Miners, the United Mine Workers of America, and the steel workers of the country at present little organized, was given by President Charles H. Moyer just before the final adjournment of the federation today.

The formation of such a union is presented as an alternative to affiliation with the American Federation of Labor in case the last named organization declines to delegate to the Western Federation the authority the miners demand. In these demands the most important is that all men employed about metalliferous mines, whether actually mining or not, be placed under the jurisdiction of the Western Federation.

In a resolution passed this afternoon the executive committee is empowered to meet with the executive committee of the Federation of Labor to complete the details of the necessary affiliation in case the demands of the miners are met.

TEMPE RURAL CARRIER.

Washington, Aug. 2.—(Special.)—Joseph H. Daniels has been appointed rural carrier for Tempe.

A HOBO HUNT NEAR SISSON, CAL.

A Farmer Their Victim Is at Death's Door.

Sisson, Cal., Aug. 2.—Chester Wells Mapes, a farmer living a mile below Big Canyon, is at death's door with a bullet wound in his side and a bullet in the base of his brain. Two hundred men are scouring the country, hunting two hoboes who shot him on the trail in the afternoon.

Mapes found the men robbing a cabin and was marching them to Sisson when the hoboes asked to rest. They watched their chance, grabbed Mapes' gun and shot him.

Sheriff Howard came over from Yreka, and is directing the chase. Every man in Sisson tonight is armed and in pursuit. Sheriff Howard has wired to Redding asking Sheriff Montgomery to come and bring his dogs.

SURRENDER OF BRYAN HIS CANDIDATE PATRICK

Will Not Contest the Renomination of Shallenberger.

Omaha, Neb., Aug. 2.—W. R. Patrick of Omaha today announced his withdrawal for the race for democratic nomination for governor. Patrick is an advocate for county option and was supposed to have the backing of W. J. Bryan. Richard L. Metcalfe, editor of Bryan's paper, today announced that he is supporting Shallenberger for the renomination.

This, in connection with the withdrawal of Patrick, is supposed by political leaders to indicate that Bryan intends to come out in favor of the present governor.

DEMOCRATS HAVE HOPES

Of Getting Something Out of the Wash in Iowa

REPUBLICAN FACTIONS

Are Hopelessly and Bitterly Divided On Eve of Convention Which Is Destined to End In Crushing of Standpatters

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 2.—Politics was in active eruption today preliminary to the republican state convention tomorrow. Tonight a dark red line may be seen dividing the standpatters and progressives, and certain democrats, including Clint Price, the democratic candidate for congress in the Seventh (Des Moines) district, and others were observed gloating over the red line.

"All you have got to do is to get out the stand-pat vote, Clint, and your address will be Washington, D. C.," observed a friend to the democratic candidate.

"All I've got to do is to get out the democrats," retorted Price. "The stand-patters will be at the polls if they have to walk backwards, and voting, if not for Price, against the progressive candidate."

The foregoing is quoted not as a prediction, but as a specimen comment from persons who have closely observed today's developments. On one side of the line mentioned the stand-patters are gathered several hundred strong, decided to insist upon a plank endorsing President Taft and the official acts of his administration and of the recent congress, and also to endorse the Iowa insurgent delegation only so far as it has been "regular." In other words, when it supported the administration on the tariff and railroad legislation.

On the other side, the progressive leaders conferred to the general effect that President Taft should be mentioned only to the extent that he has endeavored to carry out the pledges of the national republican platform.

The stand-patters have decided to insist on the endorsement of Governor Carroll. The insurgents threw out a sop for harmony by agreeing to an endorsement of the state administration, without mentioning the governor's name.

Both meetings were enthusiastic. At the stand-pat meeting ex-Congressman Lacey sounded the keynote. "Let's fight," he said, "and if the steam roller passes over us, let's go down to defeat carrying the flag of true republicanism with us, while the majority who vote us down will bear the odium of having refused a specific endorsement of a great republican president, who has carried out every promise of the republican party."

Among those at the insurgent meeting were Senator Cummins, former Judge Jesse A. Miller, Attorney General Byers, Warren Garst, the defeated progressive candidate for governor, and a host of others.

Senator Dolliver immediately upon his arrival in the city was slated for permanent chairman, to take up the gavel when it is laid down by Senator Cummins, the temporary chairman. The liquor question will receive the careful consideration of the resolution committee, if not of the convention itself.

HARMONY ABANDONED.

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 2.—It was near midnight when the leaders of the stand-patters, after a day of ceaseless conferences, drafted resolutions calculated to shatter the least remote shadow of harmony at tomorrow's convention. The text of the plank they agreed to fight for to the last is substantially as follows:

1. We endorse President W. H. Taft and his administration of the affairs of the nation. We endorse him as the leader of the republican party of the nation.

2. We endorse the economical and statesmanlike administration of Governor B. F. Carroll, the leader of the republican party of the state of Iowa.

3. We endorse the action of President Taft in placing his signature and approval upon the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill, and to this law we give our full and unqualified endorsement.

4. In so far as they have aided President Taft in carrying out his policies and the program of the administration, we endorse the Iowa delegation at Washington.

JAPAN LOVES US. The Guaranty of Bishop Harris, Who Claims to Know.

New York, Aug. 2.—Speaking from a standpoint of thirty years' experience in Japan and five in Korea, Rev. Herriman Harris, the Methodist bishop of Korea, who has just arrived, said today that the friendship of Japan for the United States was strikingly characteristic, not only of the government, but of the people. The good feeling toward America among the people is traditional, he said.

ACQUITTAL OF SKELLY. The Santa Ana Man Accused of Burning Wife to Death.

Santa Ana, Cal., Aug. 2.—Frank Skelly, accused of burning his wife to death last May, was acquitted today. The trial lasted two weeks. The jury was out one hour and fifty-five minutes.

Skelly was accused of throwing gasoline over his wife and lighting it. The defense contended that she was fatally burned while trying to fill the reservoir while the cooking stove was lit.

COLONEL ROOSEVELT AMONG THE TOILERS

GATHERING INFORMATION AT FIRST HAND.

An Inspection of Mines and Silk Mills in Vicinity of Scranton.

Scranton, Pa., Aug. 2.—Col. Roosevelt spent the day in Dickinson county among the workers in the heart of the anthracite region. While the real object of his trip is unknown, it is believed that he intends to write a story descriptive of the fields. He met and talked with the men who dig coal as they came from the mines black with grime. He talked with them about their homes, their children, their manner of living, and learned from their own lips how they look at life. He climbed on top of a coal breaker and spent half an hour in the stifling coal dust, so that he might see what the boys do.

He spent another half hour in a silk mill, talking with the girl workers. He dodged two miles through the dust up the hills to all manner of places, and returned to Scranton in the evening black with grime and smiling with delight at his experience. Many of the toilers had no idea of his identity. Meeting Jake Kavanaugh, a miner walking down the street, Col. Roosevelt stopped him saying: "I want to go home and talk with you." Kavanaugh agreed, and they walked up the street to a small house, with most of the paint worn off. Kavanaugh led the colonel in and sat him down on the porch. Then he went inside and brought out Mrs. Kavanaugh and two little Kavanaugh boys. They talked about mining. Later he went inside and complimented Mrs. Kavanaugh on her proficiency as a housekeeper.

Soon his presence became known and a crowd gathered. He tore him away and brought out Mrs. Kavanaugh and two little Kavanaugh boys. They talked about mining. Later he went inside and complimented Mrs. Kavanaugh on her proficiency as a housekeeper.

RESTS WITH MISS LENEVE To Furnish Evidence for Conviction of Crippen.

Quebec, Aug. 2.—Ethel Claire Leneve, who gave up her home and friends for the love of Dr. Hawley Crippen and now finds herself sharing with him the odium of a murder charge, has become the central figure in that notorious London tragedy in which a wife is believed to have been murdered.

Crippen, taciturn, and seeming to a considerable extent to have recovered his composure, has volunteered no information which might help the police to solve the mystery of the disappearance of his wife, Belle Elmore, and the police expect no help from that source.

"Crippen is no fool," said Inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard this morning, and no one questions this opinion. Accordingly, the police are resting their hopes on Miss Leneve. If she does not possess the key to the mystery the police think she can at least aid them materially.

They cannot use any "third degree" methods under the English law. But more subtle influences are already at work.

The pretty girl prisoner is being treated with the greatest consideration. She has not been placed in a cell and has been allowed occasional outdoor exercise. The attitude of the police toward her is sympathetic.

Inspector Dew has repeatedly declared that he believed the girl innocent of any knowledge of wrongdoing. At the same time Miss Leneve is being bombarded with telegrams from the members of her family in London, urging her to tell all she knows.

The purpose of all this is obvious, when it is considered that Scotland Yard has been unable to identify the dismembered body found in the cellar of Crippen's home.

AS A HIGH SCHOOL BOY. San Jose, Calif., Aug. 2.—Dr. Crippen was the brightest pupil in the San Jose high school when he attended that institution in 1880 and 1881, according to Attorney George D. Smith, who was his classmate, and George McDonald, Crippen's chum during his residence here.

Crippen's father was a salesman in dry goods store and his mother a dressmaker for the elite. He lived here nearly four years. Crippen graduated from the high school in 1881 and was sent east, it is said, at a considerable sacrifice, by his mother, to study medicine at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

DR. CRIPPEN HAS FRIENDS

Means For His Defense Will be Forthcoming

A LAWYER CABLES HIM

Prisoner Saw in Message Declaring That Friends Have Faith In Him, the First Ray of Hope Since His Capture

Quebec, Aug. 2.—Dr. Crippen has London friends who do not believe that he murdered his wife and who will be more than willing to pay lawyers to defend him when he is tried for murder. He received proof of this tonight when the jailer handed him the following telegram:

"Dr. H. H. Crippen, care Inspector Dew, Quebec: Your friends desire me to defend you and will pay all necessary expenses. I will undertake your defense, but you must promise to keep absolutely silent and answer no questions, and do not resist extradition. Reply immediately, as a good deal must be done at once."

"ARTHUR NEWTON." This unexpected message, brought to the accused doctor in his cell the first gleam of hope since his arrest. Whether Crippen has accepted the proffered help could not be learned. Evidently the names of his friends could not be ascertained. Nothing is known here about the solicitor who signed the telegram. Crippen's demeanor is that of a man who wants to be let alone.

AN ADVOCATE OF EXPERIENCE. London, Aug. 2.—Arthur Newton, who called Crippen his willingness to undertake his defense, is a criminal advocate who has been called in many cases of a sensational character.

GRAND TRUNK STRIKE BROUGHT TO AN END

The Men Get An Advance of Eighteen Per Cent.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 2.—The strike of the conductors, trainmen and yardmen which began on the Grand Trunk and Central Vermont systems July 18, was officially called off tonight. Under the terms of the agreement the men will receive, dating back to May 13, an advance approximately of 18 per cent, to end January 1, 1912. The rate of wages is slightly below the eastern association schedule, for which they struck, but is an advance in many instances of over 30 per cent.

Much credit for the successful outcome of the peace negotiations is given W. L. MacKenzie King, minister of labor, who persisted in his effort to bring the men together despite discouraging setbacks.

MURDEROUS BARTENDER KILLS A SALOONKEEPER

For a Time a Lynching Was Feared at Winslow.

Winslow, Ariz., Aug. 2.—Robert W. Johnson, a saloon man, was shot and killed today by A. Miller, a bartender. The tragedy occurred in Johnson's saloon, where Miller became abusive and was ordered to leave. Drawing a gun, he placed it against his victim's breast and fired.

The murderer was placed in jail, which was strongly guarded. Lynching was threatened, but the officers are confident of their ability to protect the prisoner.

lands, which were eliminated from the national forests and restored to public domain by the recent proclamation of President Taft, will be thrown open for homestead settlement and entry this fall. These lands are located in Colorado, New Mexico, Washington, Oregon, Utah, Idaho and Wyoming.

JOE GANS' PROGRESS. Oxygen May Enable Him to Reach Baltimore Alive.

Albuquerque, N. M., Aug. 2.—Joe Gans, accompanied by his wife and Physician, passed through here tonight, apparently in a dying condition. By the use of oxygen the doctor expects to bring the patient through to Baltimore before death occurs.

BURNED BY VITROL. Philadelphia, Aug. 2.—Fourteen persons, most of them children, were badly burned by vitrol here this afternoon by the upsetting of the fire department supply wagon. Two children will probably die and several others are believed to be fatally burned.

SIZE OF SACRAMENTO. Washington, Aug. 2.—The population of Sacramento, Cal., is 44,696, according to the census bureau figures. This is an increase of 15,414, or 52.6 per cent over 1900.

MISSOURI PRIMARIES CANNONISM AN ISSUE

Among Republicans in Two Districts.

The Democrats Generally Nominated Without Opposition.

St. Louis, Aug. 2.—Enough returns were received this morning from all but two of the sixteen congressional districts of Missouri to indicate who are most likely to be the nominees. The vote throughout the state was light, and many voters scratched their tickets badly.

Six of the ten democratic congressmen were nominated without opposition, and two will have no opposition for election. However, before the general election candidates will be drafted by the republicans to fill the vacancies.

The republicans of the Fifth and the Fourteenth districts had Cannonism as the issue as usual. Congressman Chas. A. Crow of the Fourteenth is opposed by David W. Hill, insurgent. The result may not be known for several days.

OKLAHOMA RESULTS. Guthrie, Okla., Aug. 2.—With only scattering returns received, the indications at midnight are favorable to the nomination of J. W. McNeal, republican, for governor. W. H. Murray and Lee H. Cruce, democrats, are in a close race. The vote so far as tabulated, shows a majority in favor of the "grandfather" clause to the constitution by which many negroes will be disfranchised.

THE EARLY MORNING RETURNS. Topeka, Kas., Aug. 2.—The visit of Speaker Cannon to Kansas during the recent primary campaign utterly failed to stem the insurgent tide, if the complete returns bear out the returns received this morning. The indications are that Kansas will have six insurgent congressmen in the next congress, instead of two as in the last.

There seems no doubt of the nomination of R. R. Rees, insurgent, in the Fifth. This means the defeat of W. A. Calderhead, called by Speaker Cannon "the dean of the Kansas delegation." Another regular whose defeat is considered sure is J. M. Miller, in the Fourth, who has apparently lost to Fred Jackson by a big majority.

T. A. McNeal is claiming a victory in the First over D. R. Anthony, and the insurgents assert that they have elected A. C. Mitchell in the Second over C. E. Scott.

The renomination of P. P. Campbell, stand-patter, over Arthur Cranston, is conceded. Stubbs' nomination for governor is claimed by 15,000.

A NEW WAVE OF POPULISM. Leavenworth, Kas., Aug. 2.—Congressman D. R. Anthony, commenting on the situation, said: "It looks like Kansas is to be engulfed in another wave of populism. The campaign of misrepresentation by the Kansas City Star and the Topeka Capital has blinded the people of Kansas, and given the demagogues a temporary victory in most of the congressional districts. The First district has never yet gone populist or democratic in the political history of Kansas, and I am hopeful that when the full returns are in a majority will be found for the regular republicans."

TROOPS WANTED TO FIGHT FIRE

Butte, Mont., Aug. 2.—Forest Supervisor Mason suggests that the forest service ask the war department to detail regulars to help the militia fight the fires which are rapidly getting beyond control in Montana and Idaho.
